Adi Kailash & Om Parvat Yatra

Experience a soul-stirring journey to Adi Kailash, the sacred Himalayan peak revered as a divine counterpart of Mount Kailash, and witness the mystical beauty of Om Parvat, where the naturally formed “ॐ” symbol appears on the snow-clad mountain face.

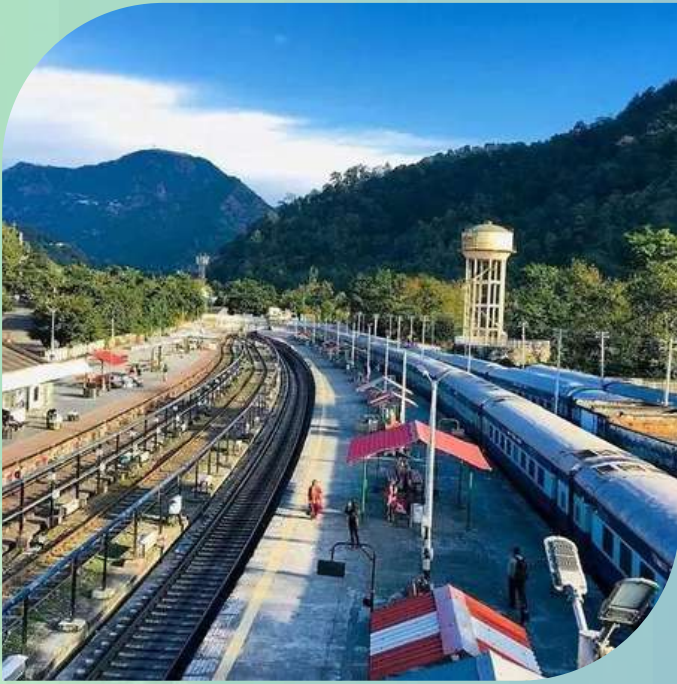

Surrounded by dramatic valleys, pristine lakes, ancient villages, and breathtaking Himalayan landscapes, this extraordinary expedition offers a perfect blend of spirituality, adventure, and natural wonder. Far from the usual tourist trails, the journey invites travelers to experience peace, devotion, and the raw magic of the Himalayas in one unforgettable pilgrimage.

Trip Itinerary

Day1: KATHGODAM to DHARCHULA

(DRIVE 300 KM | 9-11 HOURS)

- Your spiritual Himalayan journey begins with arrival at Kathgodam Railway Station, where our representative will warmly welcome you. After the meet & greet session, begin a scenic drive towards Dharchula, a beautiful Himalayan town situated near the Indo-Nepal border.
- The journey takes you through the picturesque Kumaon region of Uttarakhand. En route, pass through the charming hill town of Almora, known for its cultural heritage and panoramic mountain views. Continue driving through Pithoragarh, often referred to as “Little Kashmir” because of its lush valleys and stunning Himalayan surroundings.
- Upon reaching Dharchula by evening, check in to the hotel and relax after the long yet scenic drive. Spend the evening soaking in the peaceful atmosphere of this border town located along the Kali River.
- Dinner and overnight stay at hotel in Dharchula.

Day2: DHARCHULA to NABI

VILLAGE (DRIVE 85 KM | 5-6 HOURS)

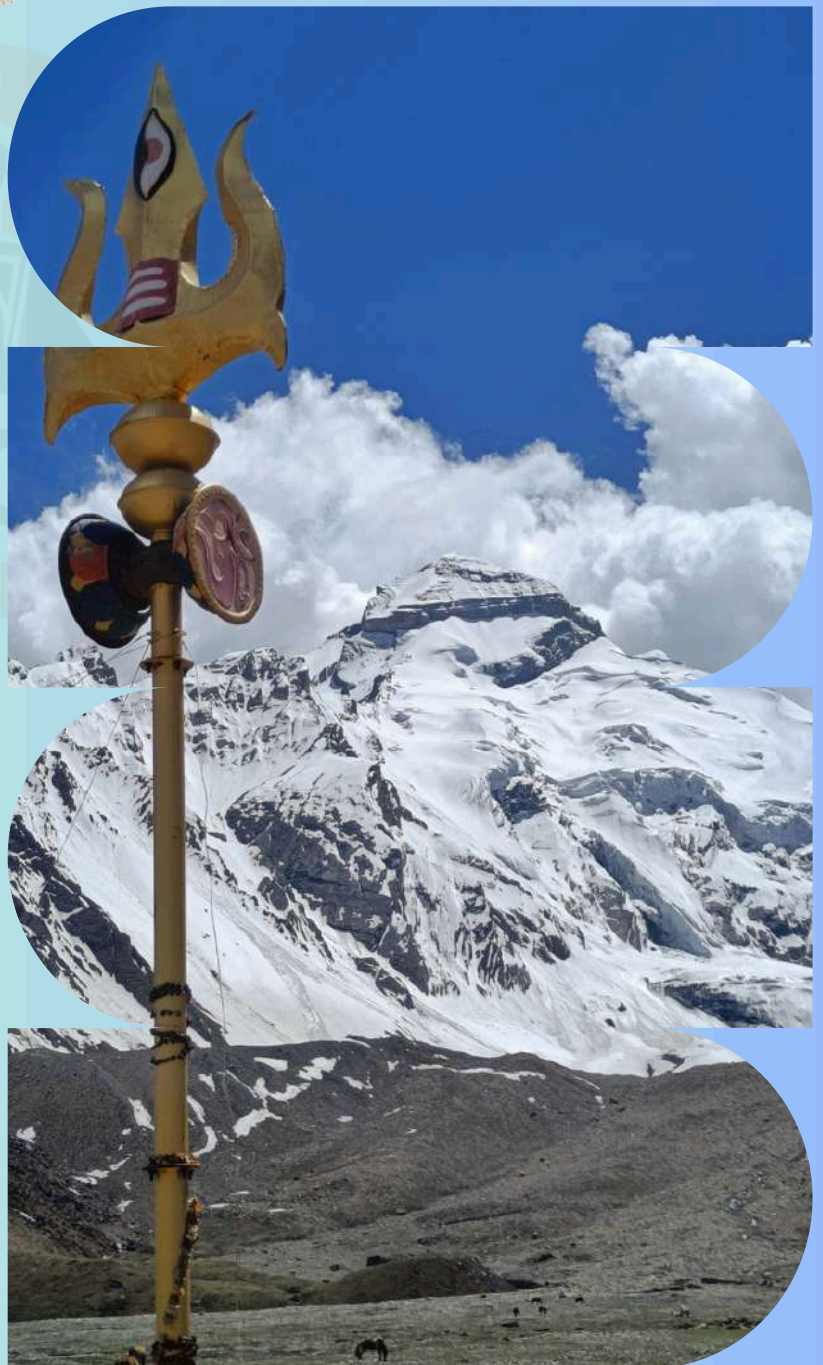

- Start the morning with an early breakfast before proceeding towards Nabi Village, one of the remote Himalayan villages located in the Vyas Valley region. Since this area falls under the Inner Line zone near the Indo-Tibet border, permit verification will be completed before continuing the journey.
- The drive from Dharchula to Nabi Village is one of the most breathtaking Himalayan routes. Travel through rugged mountain roads, waterfalls, deep gorges, and dramatic landscapes. Pass through the important junction of Tawaghat, where the route follows the roaring Kali River.
- Continue further into the higher Himalayan terrain via Gunji Village, a scenic settlement surrounded by towering mountains and rich Himalayan beauty. The journey offers incredible views of the Indo-Nepal valleys, glacial streams, and untouched mountain villages.
- On arrival at Nabi Village, check in to the homestay or camp. The rest of the day is reserved for acclimatization to the high altitude. Guests may explore the traditional Himalayan village, interact with locals, and experience the simple lifestyle of the border communities.
- Dinner and overnight stay in homestay/camp at Nabi Village.

Day3: NABI VILLAGE to ADI KAILASH & RETURN to NABI

(DRIVE 70 KM | 5-6 HOURS)

- Wake up early in the morning for the most spiritual and significant day of the yatra. After breakfast, begin the drive and short trek towards the sacred Adi Kailash, also known as Chhota Kailash.
- Surrounded by majestic Himalayan peaks and pristine natural beauty, the route towards Adi Kailash offers a deeply spiritual experience. As you move closer to the sacred mountain, the atmosphere becomes serene and divine, attracting pilgrims and spiritual seekers from across the country.
- Visit the holy Parvati Sarovar, a beautiful high-altitude lake believed to hold immense spiritual significance. The crystal-clear waters of the lake reflect the magnificent Adi Kailash peak, creating a breathtaking and peaceful setting for meditation and prayer.
- Enjoy darshan of the sacred Adi Kailash peak, considered one of the most spiritually powerful mountains in the Himalayas. Pilgrims often spend time offering prayers, capturing photographs, and absorbing the divine energy of the region.
- Packed lunch will be provided during the excursion amidst the stunning Himalayan landscapes. Dinner and overnight stay at Nabi Village.

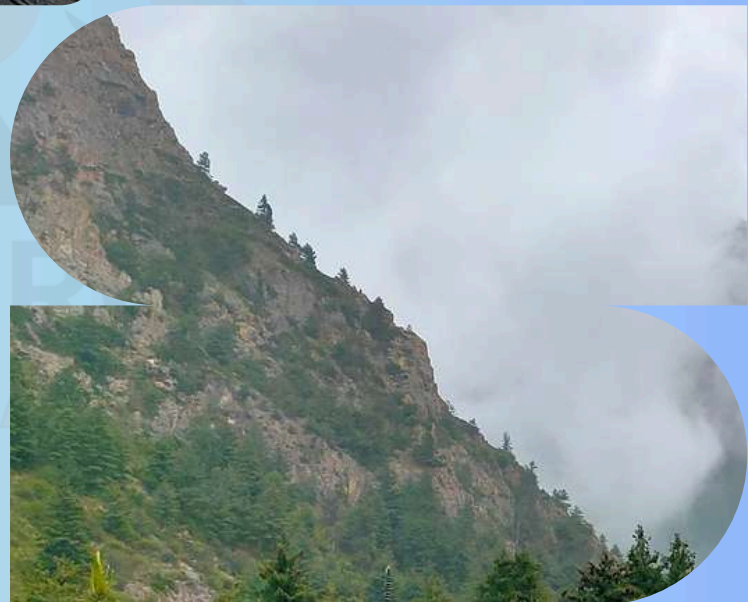

Day4: NABI VILLAGE to OM

PARVAT & BACK to DHARCHULA

(DRIVE 130 KM | 8-9 HOURS)

- Begin the day early with a drive towards the sacred Om Parvat, one of the most mysterious and revered mountains in the Himalayas.
- Om Parvat is famous for the naturally formed “ॐ” symbol that appears on the mountain surface due to snow deposition patterns. This rare phenomenon is considered highly sacred among Hindu devotees and spiritual travelers.
- On reaching the viewpoint, witness the divine symbol of “ॐ” shining prominently against the dark mountain background. The experience of seeing this naturally formed sacred sign amidst the mighty Himalayas is truly spiritual and unforgettable.
- After completing the visit, begin the return journey towards Dharchula. Drive back through the scenic mountain roads, river valleys, and remote Himalayan villages.
- Upon arrival in Dharchula, check in to the hotel and relax after the adventurous day.
- Dinner and overnight stay at hotel in Dharchula.

Day5: DHARCHULA to

KATHGODAM (DRIVE 300 KM | 11 HOURS)

- After breakfast, check out from the hotel and begin the return journey towards Kathgodam.
- Enjoy the final drive through the beautiful Kumaon hills, passing through scenic valleys, mountain villages, rivers, and forests. The return journey offers another opportunity to witness the natural beauty of Uttarakhand and relive the unforgettable memories of the spiritual Himalayan expedition.
- On arrival at Kathgodam, the yatra concludes with divine blessings, peaceful memories, and an unforgettable experience of visiting the sacred lands of Adi Kailash and Om Parvat.
