Rudranath Yatra

'The Second Kedar'

The Rudranath Trek leads to one of the sacred Panch Kedar temples dedicated to Lord Shiva, where his face is worshipped in a natural rock formation.

Spiritually, the trek is considered a journey of devotion, with serene forests and alpine meadows enhancing meditation and inner peace.

Historically, the temple is linked to the Mahabharata, where the Pandavas sought forgiveness from Shiva.

Overall, Rudranath blends nature, mythology, and spirituality into a deeply enriching Himalayan experience.
